

How Many Lines?

Cut out each figure.
Find all the lines of symmetry.
Draw each line on the figure.
Answer the questions on the activity sheet.

Related Activity: Work in pairs to create pictures on the computer where many of the parts of the picture have one or more lines of symmetry. After you print your creations, you can trade with another pair and identify all the lines of symmetry in each other's pictures.