

PPL CORPORATION TO DEDICATE SIGN TO CENTRAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL AT SUMMER ACTIVITIES FAIR

DATE: Saturday, April 23, 2005

TIME: Sign Dedication: 12:30pm (corner of Turner & Lumber Sts.)
Summer Activities Fair: 12pm-3pm

LOCATION: Central Elementary School
829 Turner Street, Allentown

BRIEFLY: Officials from PPL Corporation will be attending a dedication of Central Elementary School's new exterior sign that the corporation and its employees funded. The dedication will be held on Saturday, April 23 at 12:30pm during the Summer Activities Fair at Central Elementary School. PPL and Central Elementary School's partnership is long-standing with PPL employees volunteering at the school and raising funds for the sign and other school activities. The sign is located at the corner of Turner & Lumber Streets. "PPL is a wonderful partner in our school and community," says Central Elementary principal Michael Rodriguez. "Their dedication and generosity makes a difference everyday in the lives of our students. We are thankful for their continued partnership."

The Summer Activities Fair promotes safe, fun activities for children to belong over summer break. Sponsors for the event include: Lehigh Valley Road Runners, Allentown Health Bureau, Salem UCC & Iglesia de Jesucristo Pentecoste, and Clarion Hotel. Fair activities include educational programming, raffles, snacks, a DJ, face painting and trolley rides. The Fair takes place from 12pm-3pm.
