BRIEFLY: Trexler Middle School Library is proud to be hosting an upcoming author visit on November 10th. Jordan Sonnenblick, a local 8th grade English teacher, has successfully reached the middle school adolescent through his first novel. Students at Trexler (and across the U.S.) voted during the week of Oct 16th for the Top Ten Teen Reads and Sonnenblick's DRUMS, GIRLS AND DANGEROUS PIE came in fifth. Sonnenblick has been featured in the latest issue of Lehigh Valley Magazine in an article on how families are coping with cancer. He will be doing a presentation in the auditorium in the morning and a few writing workshops in the library for the afternoon.
