

ALLENTOWN SCHOOL DISTRICT STUDENTS INVITED TO ATTEND PENNCORD CONFERENCE AT GOVERNOR'S RESIDENCE

DATE/TIME: The one-day program will be held Tuesday, October 25th, 10:00 am—3:30 pm, Governor's Residence, Harrisburg.

BRIEFLY: Chaperoned by Allen High School teacher, Laura Quinter, and Dieruff High School teacher, Keith Ronalds, ASD students have been invited to participate in a series of workshops on civic education, being hosted by Judge Marjorie O. Rendell, Pennsylvania's first lady, at the Governor's Residence. Dieruff HS students attending are: Tiffany Hillegass, Anthony Cocco and Laura Khallouf. Representing William Allen HS are students Greta Bednarczyk and Maureen Chomko.

The day will include a welcome by Judge Rendell, lunch, tour of the Governor's Residence, and three workshops: "Student Involvement in School Governance"; "Media Campaign"; and "Advocating to School Administrators". PennCord is an abbreviation for the Pennsylvania Coalition for Representative Democracy.

CONTACT: Susan L. Williams, APR, MA
610-366-2155
suewill@ptd.net

Myron Yoder
Social Studies Curriculum Coordinator
484-765-4091
yoderm@allentownsd.org

Briana Flinchbaugh, National Constitution Center
215-409-6629
bflinchbaugh@constitutioncenter.org

(released 10-22-05)