BRIEFLY: An ASD tradition for over 50 years, the District's annual All-City Music Festival is set to take place Wednesday, April 5 at 7:00pm. This year's performance will feature over 130 student musicians from grades 3-5 music programs run throughout the District, offering a wide range of musical selections including classical, pop, patriotic and contemporary styles. Conductors for the performance include: Brian Hinkle (Raub), Richard Groller (Trexler Middle), Tom McFadden (SMMS), Paul Recker (HMMS) and Jane Gibson (Trexler Middle) and orchestra instructors Nancy Fennell (Muhlenberg ES), Larry Flynn (Jackson ES, Jefferson ES), Mary Nelson (Union Terrace ES) and Steven Ziminsky (Mosser ES). Approximately 500 guests are expected to attend. The performance is free and open to the public.

Dr. Timothy Running, Professor of Music at Kutztown University, will guest conduct at the annual Allentown School District Bands-in-the-Round performance Saturday, April 1 at 7:30 p.m. Approximately 200 band members representing the District's four middle schools (Harrison-Morton, Raub, Trexler and South Mountain) will participate. Tom McFadden, Band Instructor from South Mountain Middle School, is in charge of Bands-in-the-Round this year. Additional conductors for the event include band instructors Brian Hinkle(Raub), Richard Groller(Trexler), and Paul Recker(Harrison-Morton). Admittance is $3.00 per person. Tickets may be purchased at the door or at any Allentown School District middle school.
