Employment Requirements as mandated by the federal and state governmental agencies.

Recommendation for employment will require completion of these required forms. If you cannot or will not be able to produce the required documentation, the Allentown School District cannot consider you for employment.

1. The Pennsylvania Department of Health has mandated that each new employee of a school district must submit a School Personnel Health Record, completed by his/her personal physician. This includes tuberculin testing.
2. The Pennsylvania School Code, as amended by act 34 of 1985 requires the completion, by the Pennsylvania State Police, of a Request for Criminal History Information (Form SP4-164) for each prospective employee of a school district. You must request the report and submit either the completed report or a statement from the Pennsylvania State Police attesting to your status concerning your request. If you are an out-of-state applicant, you also must submit a copy of your criminal history report. An out-of-state applicant shall request the Federal Bureau of Investigation to provide her/his report. The original criminal record history report must be submitted prior to employment and it must be no more than one (1) year old.
3. Title 23 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, as amended by Act 151 of 1994 require the completion, by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare, of a Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearance for each prospective employee of a school district. Your must request the clearance statement and submit either the completed clearance statement or a statement from the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare that no record exists. The original statement of clearance must be submitted prior to employment and it must be no more than one (1) year old.
4. The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires that we employ only American citizens and aliens who are authorized to work in the United States. The document used for this purpose is Employment Eligibility Verification (Form 1-9), and completion of this form is required for each prospective employee of a school district. A complete list of acceptable documents is available in the Human Resources office.

"The Allentown School District declares itself to be an equal rights and opportunity agency. As an equal rights and opportunity agency, it does not discriminate against individuals or groups because of race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex, marital status or non-relevant handicaps and disabilities as defined by law."

The Allentown School District will take steps to assure that lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in all educational and vocational programs.

For information about this policy, please contact the Title IX and Section 504 Coordinator, Dr. C. Russell Mayo, Administration Center, 31 South Penn Street, Box 328, Allentown, PA 18105.
